GROUPS THAT FEAST ON CULTURE DINE WITH US

No collection of restaurants is as close to the cultural attractions of New York as ours.

For theater-going groups, there's the memorable MAMMA LEONE'S, Broadway's longest-running show. America's finest regional cooking at the AMERICAN FESTIVAL CAFE. Elegant, informal French suppers at the BRASSERIE. Italian feasts at TRATTORIA.

For music-lovers, there's light, pre-performance fare at Lincoln Center's ALLEGRO CAFE and ADAGIO BUFFET.

For museum-goers, there's THE AMERICAN MUSEUM RESTAURANT in The American Museum of Natural History. And if your group's taste is international, there's the UNITED NATIONS, with beautiful dining suites overlooking the East River.

The fact is, any group that's close to New York's culture is never far from us. If you want to know more, call Restaurant Associates' Group Sales Director Paula Cohen at 212-997-1380.

Every day, TWA can take you nonstop to London. (In fact, we can take you nonstop from the U.S.A. to more places in Europe than anybody else.)

But we can do much more than that.

With our Getaway® "London Theatre Week," we'll get you into two of the hottest shows in the West End. Put you up for eight nights in a First Class or Top Value hotel. And even give you special discounts at many shops and restaurants.

With double occupancy, the price of all this per person? From as little as $289 to $549, not including airfare.

So give TWA or your favorite travel agent a call. And give your regards to the West End.

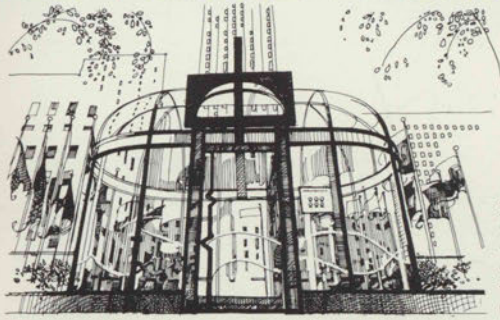
Front row seats for the best of America's cooking are just an elevator ride away.



Rockefeller Center rises around you. But soon, as your private elevator descends, it gives way to the glass-walled American Festival Cafe.

Here you can enjoy front row seats, for parties small and large, to the best of America's regional cuisines, presented in the best of surroundings: a dazzling festival of tile and wood and leather and museum-quality folk art.

We're a festival, too, of American variety, with special menus that change from month to month, each focusing on a different region or season.

Reserve your seats now. Find out how much more there is to American food than apple pie.
